"GUILTY, BUT DRUNK' MISCELLANEOUS.

Good Old Story Worthy Repetition Still. A story went the round twenty-five or hirty years ago, and is old enough to be new. It illustrates the embarrassment which a glass too much sometimes occasions the best of men. There lived in Georgia, says Colonel Bradbury, whom Georgia, says Colonel Braddury, whom Burton credits with the narrative, a Circuit Judge by the name of Brown, a man cuit Judge by the name of Brown, a man pany to construct a line between Baltimore and Cincinnati. cuit Judge by the name of Brown, a man of ability, of inflexible integrity and beloved and respected by all the legal profession. But he had one fault. His social qualities would lead him, despite his judgment, into occasional excesses. In traveling the circuit it was his habit, the night before opening Court, to get "comfortably corned." If he couldn't succeed while operating upon his own hook the members of the bar would generally turn in and help his wife in the old-fashioned carry-all, the Judge journeyed some forty miles and reached a village where Court was to be Judge journeyed some forty miles and reached a village where Court was to be opened the next day. He took quarters with a relation of his better half, by whom the presence of an official dignitary was considered high honor. After supper he strolled over to the only tavern in the town, where he found many old friends, attracted to the place, like himself, on imertant professional business, and who were roperly glad to meet him. emen," said the Judge,

Of course, Sterritt (addressing the landlord), you have better liquor than you had the last time we were here; the stuff ings and Sprains, Burns and Scalds, General Bodily you had then was not fit to give a dcg!"
Sterritt, who had charge of the house, pretended that everything was right, and they went to work. It is unnecessary to Tooth, Ear and Headache, Frosted Feet and Ears, and all other enlarge upon a drinking bout in a country tavern—it will quite answer our purpose to state that somewhere in the region of midnight the Judge wended his very devi-ous way toward his temporary home. About the time he was leaving, however, No Preparation on earth equals St. Jacobs Oil is a safe, sure, simple and cheap External Remedy. When dawn was lighting the rosy heaven, At four in summer, in winter seven,

Ere Phæbus glowed,
Or yet the city had turned in its bed,
There by the window, with needle and thread,

She sat and sewed. And, as the hand so busily plied,
A baby boy played soft by her side
The whole day long;
And sad and sweet in the evening mild
Were heard the vices of mother and child
In gentle song.

ACROSS THE STREET.

'Mid toil and trouble and dire despair, The child's smile solaced the mother's care Thro' dreary years; For the little one had its father's face That faded away from her fond embrace With burning tears. But there came a day when the song was still,

And the needle stopped at the window sill,
For the babe was low;
And there came a day when the boy was dead
And cold and pale in his little bed
Where the violets blow. No longer the woman sits and sews, No longer the tear of sorrow flows, Or memories throng; For the gentle tones of mother and child Are blended again in the evening mild
In angel song.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE. THE TURF.

Pirst Day of the Capital Turf Club Races. The first day (yesterday) of the spring meet of the Capital Turf Club was a better ash day than the first day last year. All things considered, it was a very fair opening. The first race was a three-quarter mile running stake, single dash, for the $20 entrance and $100 added. The entries were Shafter's Haddington, Winters' Dake of Norfolk, and Judson's Belshaw. The Duke was the favorite at $20 to $5 and $6 for each of the others. The pools sold well. The sendoff was with the horses in the order above announced. Haddington led during the first parter, and on the first turn was the leader by eight or ten lengths. At the second turn, however, the Duke left the side of Belshaw,

The second race was a running stake, mile dash, between Shafter's Night Hawk, Miller's b. h. Boots, Winters' ch. h. Atlanta, and Judson's s. m. May D. The stake was $150 added to the entrance. Atlanta was the first choice at $35 to $22 for Boots, and $7 to $10 for Night Hawk, and $5 for May D., who came is to the receivant least rement. Boots was never made. The horses were all in a bunch at the start. Night Hawk took the pole on the first turn, but lost it to May D. at the quarter. Atlanta, though came into the pools at the last moment. Boots had the pole, May D. second, Atlanta third and Night Hawk outside. A prettier dash at the quarter. Atlants, though carrying but 87 pounds, and the favorite, disappointed his friends and failed to lead as expected. On the upper turn the four went side by side, and the crowd cheered lustily at the very handsome struggle. At the three-quarter pole May D. took the lead by a neck, and kept her place to the score, winning in 1:43‡ by a half-length over Night Hawk second, Boots third and Atlanta last.

Causes and Results of Ignatieff's Down-

New YORK, June 14th.—The Herald's St. Petersburg special says: General Ignatiefi's downfall must be attributed to the four-fold coalition of the Germans, the Jews, the Court party and the Holy Synod, represented in the councils of the Emperor by M. Pebedonostcouncils of the Emperor by M. Pebedonostseff. Germany has never forgiven General Ignatieff for his supposed connivance with General Skobeloff. All the imperial family's influence has been brought to bear against him. The Jews meanwhile combated him by depreciating the Russian funds. The Court detested him because he held it in check, and the Holy Synod bore him a grudge for his refusal to second the Sabhatarian by shooting himself in the head. Instead of sending the ball crashing through his brain, he shot himself in the nose, inflicting a very severe, but not necessarily fatal, wound.

The Missing Steam Whaler.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 14th.—Captain Millard has just returned from Honolulu, where he had been waiting for three months to take command of the steam whaler Lucretia, from New Bedford, now given up for lost. The Lucretia was 175 days out, and as nothing has been heard or seen of her, Captain Millard concludes that she has been wrecked and all on board lost. She was the property of Wm. Lewis, of New Bedford, whe sold the Rogers to the United States, and who is now building a sister ship to the Rogers, which will soon proceed to the Pacific Arctic.

The Repression Act. LONDON, June 14th .- In the discussion of London, June 14th.—In the discussion of the repression bill in the House of Commons, to-day, Gladstone agreed that a re-entry into the evicted holding should not be punishable unless it was effected by force, and that of the two magistrates exercising summary jurisdiction, one must be a lawyer.

Harcourt promised that a new Summary, Jurisdiction Act, as far as it applied to the assault of balliffs, etc., should be exercised only in the proclaimed districts.

PREPARED without fermentation from Canadian Barley Malt and Fresh Hop, combined with Quinnie Bark, and warranted more Nourishing, Strengthening, Vitalizing and Purifying, by reason of their richness in Bone and Fat 270-ducing Material, than all other forms of malt or medicine. One bottle of Malt Bitters equals in nourishment fifty bottles of lager beer, ale or porter, while free from the objections urged against malt liquors, alcoholic "tonics," "bitters," etc.

MALT BITTERS build up anew the nervous, stairs, passed through the rooms, floored everything on the walls, tore the painted canvas out of a frame, saluted Mr. Williams, who was standing close by, without injury, unhinged the doors, and smashed the window-lights and sashes in the house. The clothes in the closet were yanked from their position and heaped up on the floor. The china closet was completely demolished. Every dish was broken, and the silverware either colored or melted. In fact, everything in the house of a metallic nature was more or less electrified. The first gold ever found in Mono county was taken to Sonora and sold to a prominent jeweler in that place. It was made into a breastpin and pair of earrings, and these articles are still in existence. They originally belonged to a Mrs. Burgess, of Columbia, and when she died they came into possession of her oldest daughter. This lady resides in Sonora at the present ****************

PRICES TO CUARANTEE US THE LEAD

WE SHALL NOT THROW OUT BAITS TO HOOK THE PEOPLE IN, NEITHER SHALL WE OFFER A FEW DOLLARS WORTH OF GOODS AT FABULOUS LOW PRICES TO DRAW THE PEOPLE IN, AND THEN TELL THEM THAT THEY ARE JUST SOLD OUT. But we shall offer goods by the yard, piece or case, at the same LOW PRICES that this House has sustained for the past eight years, and now to-day we stand a ROCK. The people are with us-from Washington Territory to Arizona. We never advertise what we cannot fulfill. And above all things we never, in issuing OUR PRICE LISTS to circulate through the country, copy our prices from other dealers in our line; but do issue a PRICE LIST of the above goods, and the PRICES ARE TAKEN FROM OUR STOCK CARRIED IN OUR STORES, and Samples of Goods are sent out at the same LOW PRICES as retailed at. OUR GOODS ARE ALL LEADERS, AND THIS WEEK WE SHALL INTRODUCE NEW GOODS AT NEW PRICES, as we have secured some very desirable bargains for our trade, and our RICES, as we have secured some very destrable bargains for our trade, and our rices are far lower than ever before on some lines.

LET LADIES SHOPPING, COMPARE OUR PRICES WITH ANY HOUSE. LET MEN BUYING CLOTHING OR FURNISHING GOODS, SHOULD BY ALL MEANS VISIT OUR DEPARTMENTS.

MIDDEX-AGED NEW.

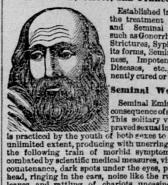

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight emarting of burning sensation, and a weakening of the system in a manner the pationt cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkigh hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance.
There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfact cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
